*$75 is the average retail pharmacy price for a 30-day Rx for patients covered by commercial insurance after covering $70 copay. $134 is the average price for patients paying cash or if Qsymia is not covered by commercial insurance. Source: McKesson Specialty Health, calculated between Jan-Sep 2023. Pharmacy fees may vary by location. Patients with commercial insurance coverage are eligible to receive $65 off 3.75 mg/23 mg dose quantities of 14-15 days and all other doses with quantities of 28-30 days. Patients paying cash or if Qsymia is not covered by commercial insurance, can receive $70 off 3.75 mg/23 mg dose quantities of 14-15 days and $75 off all other doses with quantities of 28-30 days. Please note that quantity claims of 16-27 days are not eligible for the Qsymia Savings Card.

[†]$98 pricing includes 6-week New Patient Packs, 6-week Titration Packs and all 30-day prescriptions. Additional shipping and handling costs will apply. This is a cash only program — insurance claims will not be processed. 90-day prescriptions are not permitted in all states.
